

Yahoo Taiwan 2022 暑期實習線上徵才說明會

We are looking for stellar talent that can contribute to the development of our exciting next-generation products. Are you passionate about the overall lifecycle of a product - building, coding, testing, launching and learning? If so, this is the place to be.

We offer a variety of internships to students who want jobs with real responsibility, outstanding training, and the chance to learn from the best through 1:1 mentorship in a small team setting. As an intern, you will gain valuable work experience while developing your skills and establishing a track record to set you up for a potential full-time position after graduation.

The Summer Intern positions are available NOW!

Please find the below information to apply to the one(s) you are interested in, and welcome to sign-up for our Virtual Intern Meetup (Live Stream) right now.

Virtual Intern Meetup (Live Stream) - Sign-up effective from today (this event has limited seats)

- Date/Time: 6:30 - 7:30 pm, January 19th (Wednesday), 2022
